■ Dear family:

My name is Martin, i am 15 years old, but i look less. I have two sisters and a dog. My parents are divorce and i spend one week with my mother and another week with my father. We have a very good relationship between all of us, and we live very close to each other.

At school i have a group of friends, and we usually go out around my town during the weekends.

I think that i am a sociable person, and i am really open to meet new people and live in a new culture.

I like animals, one of my favorite animal is the dog.

I love sports. In this moment i play in a soccer team in my city. Also I do surfing during summer and in winter time we sometimes we go skiing.

I have very good relationship with my sisters and my parents. And i feel free in the relationship because they believe in me and in my responsibility.

When I have a difficult situation i try to think about the problem and I resolved.

One thing i what to change is not to think too much about what life is going to be like, because sometimes never happened.

I like all kind of foods, but when last summer, i spend a month with a very nice family in the USA, and i discover I don't like one thing, the cinnamon. I will try to cook Spanish food when i will be with you.

Thanks for choosing me. We see you soon.
